Details on your candidature

I am a specialist in anesthesiology and intensive care medicine. I am employed in the surgical intensive care unit. In addition to working directly with patients, I actively participate in the learning process of residents and students. I would like to improve the learning process of residents and contribute to improving the quality of treatment of our patients. I am candidating for the position of Slovenia's representative at ESICM. I would like to improve the inclusion of Slovenian hospitals in European research projects that are being carried out under the endorsement of ESICM.

Financial interests

Description

My only source of income is my salary at the hospital and individual fees for preparing lectures and workshops.
