Details on your candidature

I'm a critical care pharmacy team leader who is active both, locally, regionally (via the South West Critical Care Network) and nationally (by sitting on the Faculty of Intensive Care Medicine's Pharmacy Subcommittee).

I wish to take the next step on my consultant Pharmacist pathway and start to make more impact on an international forum by joining the NAHP committee.

I teach clinical Pharmacology and Therapeutics to final year medical students at Peninsula Medical School and am a course content Reviewer & marker for the University of Keele, developing and marking their critical care and nutrition module.

I am published in Medical education.
